HOW TO INSTALL "COOKIES"

Cookies ("cookies") are small packets of data that are saved by your browser when you visit our websites, including the

- smartwphosting.io
- my.smartwphosting.io

websites (hereinafter referred to as "our websites"). Cookies are generally used by websites to improve the user experience by either "remembering" the user for the duration of the visit during repeated visits ("persistent" cookies) or cookies, which are deleted when the browser is closed ("session" cookies).

Cookies are not used to store information that directly identifies you. However, please note that in some countries, data such as cookie identifiers or IP/MAC addresses are considered personal data. Where we process data that is personal data, we will always handle in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

OUR WEBSITES USE THE FOLLOWING TYPES OF COOKIES

On our websites, the user may encounter the following:

- absolutely necessary cookies;
- cookies that store user preferences (functional cookies);
- cookies that collect statistical data (performance-related)
- community site with cookies.

The use of cookies, which are strictly necessary for the operation of the website, does not require the user's specific consent, because without the management of these cookies the website would not function.

The handling of cookies can also be controlled in the user's own browser, in addition to the above. For information on the cookie settings of the most commonly used browsers, see the links below:

ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY COOKIES

We set cookies to help us understand how users navigate to and within our website and to provide certain services on the site that may be useful to you (such as language or printing preferences). This helps us to provide you with an efficient online service. We call these "My Cookies".

FUNCTIONAL COOKIES

These cookies allow our websites to remember your preferences (e.g. user name or region of your location) and provide a higher level of personalised service. These cookies may also be used to remember changes you make to the text size, font and other adjustable parts of the website. The information collected by such cookies may be anonymous and may not track your browsing on other websites.

PERFORMANCE COOKIES

We may also use third-party cookies ("External Cookies") to track the websites or search terms you have visited immediately prior to visiting our website or to collect information about how visitors use the website. We use Google Analytics for this purpose. Google Analytics uses its own cookies. These cookies do not collect any information that identifies the visitor. The data collected by these cookies is aggregated and therefore anonymous. They are used solely to improve the functioning of the site.

You can find out more about Google Analytics cookies here:

<https://developers.google.com/analytics/resources/concepts/gaConceptsCookies>

You can avoid the use of Google Analytics while browsing our website by downloading and installing the browser extension available at this link:

<http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en-GB>.

SOCIAL MEDIA COOKIES

These cookies are used when you share information with a social networking site by using the share or "Like" button installed on our website, or when you link your account or engage with our content on a social networking site such as Facebook, _LinkedIn or Google+. The social networking site will record when you have performed the above activity. This data may be linked to targeted/promotional activities.

HOW TO DISABLE COOKIES?

If you do not want to receive cookies, you can change your browser settings. The way you do this is different for each browser. If you do not wish to receive cookies from our website but accept them from other sites, you can set your browser to always notify you before a cookie is saved on your device. Please see the "Help" section of your browser for more information.

With regard to third party cookies, please consult the third party for information on data management, as we have no control over the third party's data management.

If you want to know more about cookies, you can find more information here:

<http://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies> and www.youronlinechoices.com

If you disable cookies, you may not be able to use certain services on the site, or certain content or features may not be available.

In matters not covered by this Policy, in particular with regard to the rights of data subjects, the privacy policy of the website operator shall prevail, with the understanding that if the legal basis for the processing is the legitimate interest of the website operator, the user shall have the right to object to the processing, in which case he or she may challenge the lawfulness of the processing and may even request the deletion of the data by sending an e-mail to the website operator without formal obligations.

The website operator is available to answer any further questions about cookies.
